FINANCES ENOUGH TO CONTINUE SPORTS

Manager Hodgkins Claims Over
One Thousand Dollars Made
On G. W.-G. U. Contest

SCHEDULE NOW BEING ARRANGED

All Local Colleges to Be Met Next Year—G. U. Management Deserves Thanks, Says Hodgkins

The football team has ended its season without an deficit, altho it cost approximately $3,500. It is certain that there will be funds sufficient to finance the track, basketball, girls' basketball and the tennis teams, which are the sports authorized by the University.

"The very bad weather the few days before the Georgetown game," said Manager Hodgkins, "and threatening weather the day of the game, made a heavy cut in the attendance. Also there were 679 student tickets used which cut our cash share just that many dollars. In spite of these handicaps, we realized over $1,000 as our share. While we will have no abundance of money for the rest of the year, we will be able to take care of the necessary expenses of the other teams authorized."

Athletics to Continue

The University authorities have not as yet formally acted on the question of athletics for next year, but it seems probable that their continuation will be sanctioned. The question seems to be as to how many will sign the tax next year. There is an impression, according to Mr. Hodgkins, that now that we have athletics the students will not sign to keep them as they did to get them. "We will start next year with several hundred dollars' worth of equipment," continued Manager Hodgkins, "and with some men experienced in handling the business end of sports, hence, our expenses should be materially less. With good weather and better prospects for a close game, the receipts from the Georgetown game should be doubled."

Arranging Schedule

"I am, at present seeing what can be done in the way of a schedule for next fall. I am particularly anxious to have our team meet all the local institutions. These include Catholic University, Gallaudet and Maryland State, whom we did not meet this year. Negotiations are at present under way with a number of other institutions. We shall endeavor to get a well-balanced schedule about equally divided between what should be hard games and those less difficult. By getting an early start a much more attractive schedule should be secured than could be gotten for the past season."

"We shall, of course, look forward to the annual struggle with Georgetown on Thanksgiving as the culmination of the season. I have the assurance of Graduate Manager Cox, of that institution that that game can be arranged. The Georgetown management has, thruout the season, been more than courteous to us, lending us their field without compensation for the Ursinus game and they have always met us more than halfway in every detail that had to be considered as to our game with them."

PRES. STOCKTON PLEASED WITH TEAM'S RECORD

President Stockton expressed, to a Hatchet representative, his appreciation of the football team's efforts the past year.

"From my viewpoint," said the President, "the season was very encouraging."

"I am particularly pleased," he continued, "with the clean playing on the part of the team and good behavior on the part of George Washington rooters. There were no fights to mar the splendid showing made by the eleven as has been the case in former years."

"The Georgetown game was well attended and I only hope future games will be as well patronized."

BALL TOSSERS READY FOR OPENING CLASH

G. W. Quint To Play University of Maryland At Home
December 16

The basketball team plays its first game of the season next Saturday, December 16, with University of Maryland at the Y. M. C. A. According to Manager Daidy, G. W. will probably have the best team of its career. The lineup for the game has not been selected. The management wishes to have the best possible men on the team so it will wait until the very last to assign positions.

Big Squad Out

Twenty-five candidates are now practicing regularly at the Y. M. C. A. gym, under Coach George Colliflower, for the varsity basketball team. This is the largest squad that has worked under the G. W. colors and every man is receiving an equal opportunity to win a coveted position on the team. The following candidates will continue practice until New Year's, when the squad will be cut down to 12 men: Captain B. Groesbeck, H. Almon, C. Allen Matthews, A. D. Ellison, J. Wilson, L. N. Ritzhaupt, J. J. Gordon, H. H. Wilson, J. B. Patterson, J. F. Hall, John Bixler, H. Turner, J. Lenovitz, F. W. Deck, D. B. Todd, Jr., G. K. Dazey, H. Castro, J. C. Leonard, I. D. Lucal, C. J. Cleary, E. M. Dixon and Capt. Hillis and W. Culligan of the football team.

Capt. Groesbeck Confident

"The outlook for basketball seems very bright," said Captain Groesbeck, "and I anticipate a most successful season. Altho our schedule is a hard one, Coach Colliflower has some good material at his disposal and should develop a winning combination."

"While a large number of men answered the call for candidates, it seems that there should be a great many more men in the University who have had some basketball experience. Any man who has played the game at all should come out and try for the team."

"We are very fortunate in having George Colliflower as coach, for there is no better man in the South. He is one of the best players ever seen in this section, and he knows the game thoroly and is an able teacher of clean, hard basketball. His success during the short time he was coach last season is decided proof of his ability. I confidently expect to see Mr. Colliflower turn out a winning team—the best G. W. has had for many a year."

Debate Team Ready To Meet N. C. University

The G. W. debating team, which has been working day and night for the past several weeks in preparation for the big forensic contest with the University of North Carolina, is now in perfect trim to meet their opponents, and Coach Morehouse speaks confidently of victory. The great annual verbal clash with N. C. will take place Tuesday, December 18, at the Public Library Auditorium. The largest turnout of G. W. U. supporters in the recent history of our intercollegiate debating is expected.

W. U. C. "MIXER" TO BE HELD FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15

The annual "Mixer" given by the Women's University Club will be given Friday evening, December 15, in the A. & S. Assembly Hall, according to the committee having the function in charge. Plans are being completed and the committee assures all an interesting program.

GET YOUR SEASON TICKET

Those who did not get their athletic season ticket with their G. W. U. ticket may get the same by bringing their tax card to The Hatchet office.

TRACK CANDIDATES MEET MONDAY AT Y. M. C. A.

Track Meet to Be Held March 2
Relay Between Carlisle Indians and Virginia Probable

As the result of a conference with Manager Hodgkins, Manager James, of the track team, has decided to start work immediately and has set Monday evening, Dec. 11, as the first practice which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. between the hours of seven and eight.

The G. W. Track Meet has been definitely fixed for March 2. It was hoped to get teams from Yale, Princeton, and Pennsylvania to participate in the meet, but it seems that there was a conflict with one of the big meets up North. Manager James is working hard to get added attractions for this event and is banking on two relays—one between Lehigh and Lafayette and another between the Carlisle Indians and Virginia.

The track candidates will train every Monday, Wednesday and Friday regularly up to January, and only about 10 to 15 of the best material will be carried from then on. Under the coaching of Mr. Halsey, a favorable showing is looked for.

The track staff is composed of: W. S. James, manager, A. R. Wingate, Henry Ravenel and Howard Scott, assistant managers, and Raymond Harsch, captain.

ATHLETIC STAFF GIVEN ROOM

The athletic staff, consisting of the managers of the various teams, has been given a room in the new building, 2027 G street, where they may file their correspondence and hold meetings to discuss athletic plans. This room was assigned to them by President Stockton. Office furniture is being installed by Treasurer Holmes.

MILITARY COURSE ABANDONED

Due to the lack of a sufficient number of men, Dean H. L. Hodgkins has informed Captain McKenney that the Military course cannot be installed. Up to the time this notice was given the Captain, 75 men were on the list.

ELIGIBILITY RULES ADOPTED BY COUNCIL

President's Council Passes Two Resolutions—Appoints Committees

At the meeting of the President's Council, Monday, two resolutions regarding the eligibility of athletes to participate in athletic contests, were passed.

The first resolution stated that "a student who has been a member of an intercollegiate athletic team of the University shall not be eligible to continue thereon in a subsequent year unless he has in the meantime earned at least six half-year hours credit towards his degree."

The other resolution stated that "students entering for the first time must matriculate within three weeks after the opening of the half-year to be eligible for any intercollegiate athletic team during that half year."

The following committees have also been formed:

Catalogue and Other Publications: The President, Secretary, Deans Hodgkins, Wilbur and Ruediger.

Admissions: Deans Hodgkins, Wilbur and Ruediger.

Schedule: Professors Henning, Dunstan, Dean Ruediger.

Library: Professors Schoenfeld, Henning and the Librarian.

Summer School: Deans Ruediger, Hodgkins, Wilbur, Professors Hunter and Van Vleck.

Affiliated Colleges: Deans Borden, Munroe, and Professor Henning.

Student Activities: Dean Fraser, Professor Henning, Deans Ruediger, Kalusowski, Buckingham, Professors Craig, Bassett, Croissant (Secretary), and Mr. Halsey.

PROF. CROISSANT TO SPEAK

Professor DeWitt C. Croissant has been invited to speak before the members of English and modern language faculties of Princeton University, on January 20. His topic will be "The Philological and Historical Aspects of Simplified Spelling."

Lack of Substitutes a Handicap Against Heavier Team

CAPT. HILLIS OUTPUNTS MALONEY

G. W. Rooters, with Lynch, Underwood and Ramsey as Leaders, Display Great Teamwork on Yells

BY HOWARD SCOTT

The G. W. warriors covered themselves with glory (and mud) in their final game with Georgetown, Thanksgiving Day, by scoring the first touchdown that sent the G. W. stands wild with excitement. Niederhauser did the trick by recovering a Georgetown fumble and racing half the length of the field thru Georgetown tacklers who were disposed of by good interference. Niederhauser has always been considered a very dangerous man when the ball is free, and made good with a vengeance. This success was rather premature, however, as Gilroy took the G. W.'s kick-off back the length of the field for a touchdown that tied the score for the remainder of the first quarter. The Georgetown machine started working smoothly the second quarter and put over three touchdowns, but was held in check better the second half.

Team Puts Up Hard Fight

The score of 47-7 does not give a good idea at all of the character of the game, which was hard-fought from the first to last whistle. It was the best game played on Georgetown field this year, and the only strong opposition offered there to George Washington's ancient and powerful rivals across the Creek.

Every man played a game worthy of the Buff and Blue, and some outshone all their past performances. Hillis was a most reliable ball carrier, and his punting far outshone that of his opponent, Maloney. Giacomo played quarter and half back in fine style, both on offense and defense. Kerr played brilliantly, particularly in running down under punts and he and Niederhauser did some pretty work in coming down on Gilroy from each side of the field, sidestepping interference and nailing him after he received a long punt. Georgetown had little success against our solid line, and had to rely on their short and long end runs for long gains. Giblin was well matched with the opposing center, who wasn't allowed to do any damage. Genesee was a thorn in Georgetown's side in breaking up their plays. Supplee, the big right tackle, was a stone wall for Georgetown and no one attempted to get thru where he was.

Soph Prom for February 26 Refused Council Sanction

The Student Council at its last meeting, November 26, voted down by a unanimous vote the holding of the Sophomore prom on February 26. It was claimed that this function coming so close on the heels of the Freshman Prom would undoubtedly harm both in the sale of tickets.

Mr. Draper, representing the sophomores pointed out that last year's prom was attended entirely by Freshmen hence there would be no conflict. The Councilmen were not convinced and a negative vote was the result. The Council social committee chose this date because the sophomores could not hold their function before the Freshman Prom nor could it be held after the beginning of Lent. Mr. Staten, the new Councilman from the Law School, was introduced.

TO HOLD COMMENCEMENT AT CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

President Stockton authorized, and the President's Council favored the plan, to hold the annual Commencement in the large Auditorium of the Central High School. It has also been decided that no gifts or flowers will be received.

Entrance of Basketball

The G. W. football season goes out, without any financial deficit, and the basketball season comes in. The first game is next Friday with Maryland on the home floor. The material that has reported to date, according to Capt. Groesbeck, is far superior to any of former years. Thus, the students are assured of a better team this year and consequently better games. Altho the team has a hard schedule mapped out for it, it feels confident of making a splendid showing if the same support is given it as the football team got. Everyone who witnessed the football eleven were tax signers so there is no reason why the same crowd cannot show up. Manager Daidy, who arranged this splendid schedule for the University team, deserves the backing of the students. The article isn't intended to ask for a revival of School Spirit for it is already revived. All we ask is that you do not forget the basketball quint is deserving of as much support as the eleven.

The Washington public has been shown what George Washington can do in its first year back on the football map. The local sporting writers were also surprised at the splendid fight put up by the G. W. eleven. All predictions regarding the game were wrong. There were wagers 5 to 1 that the Buff and Blue eleven would not score. It was also stated that Gilroy wagered that he would make ten touchdowns himself. There were bets placed that G. W. would be beaten by a score over the 50 mark. These were all wrong. G. W. was beaten by a smaller score than any team the G. U. team played on the Hilltop this year.

It is to be hoped that more candidates will report next year to give the coach more material to draw from. The great handicap the Buff and Blue had to contend with at the Georgetown game was lack of substitutes. The team held the Hilltop eleven 7 to 7 in the first period, but they gradually weakened in the following periods as the score will indicate. Had the coach more men at his disposal the outcome of the game would have been different.

Laurels are due Coach Thomas Sullivan for the splendid performance put up by the Football Squad of '16. Had the Coach as many substitutes as our rivals on the Hilltop, there is no telling what he would have accomplished.

The students of this University, like those of one in the West, let a good thing slide thru their fingers by failing to sign up for the military course. Only 25 more men were needed to have the course installed, but those proved the hardest to get.

Niederhauser, George Washington's hero of the Georgetown game, was robbed of his glory in the local papers, being taken for Giacomo. Nevertheless, he will go down in G. W. history as the man who fooled the boys across the Creek.

Nicks

A girls game of basketball is very gentle—BUT we heard from reliable sources that Miss "Betty" Paul was fouled three times in succession for slugging and getting sassy with the referee. They must practice what they see the men do.

We begin to believe that Niederhauser had money up that we WOULD score.

PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION MEETING

The Washington Branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association held a meeting at the National College of Pharmacy last Monday. A symposium of Pharmacopoeia was presented, and the subject discussed by Doctors W. M. Barton and Noble P. Barnes from the physician's viewpoint, and by Dr. W. S. Hubbard and Mr. H. C. Fuller the viewpoint of the chemist and druggist.

SOPHS HOLD SMOKER

On Monday night, before the game, the Sophomore class held its smoker at the Sigma Chi house. Professor Croissant and several members of the football squad were guests. The object of the smoker was to make the Sophs better acquainted with each other and to generate pep for the game.

Professor Croissant made a great talk on school spirit, showing that even in schools such as Princeton it was difficult to stir up and that it was usually a small group of men who did it. He told the men present that they were really the backers of the school and that the absent ones were "deadheads" who had to be continually stirred up. He congratulated them on the spirit they had already much room for improvement.

SURVEYORS HOLD SCRIMMAGE

The surveying men on their last day in the field for the winter, November 25 held a football game, Eighteenth and Webster streets, which resembled more a basketball game in the number who played. Two teams were chosen of five men each. It was first planned to hold a contest between the surveyors and the railroad men, but the surveyors outnumbered the latter so two teams were chosen regardless of the class.

200 LOYAL ROOTERS PARADE TO HILLTOP

Band Makes First Appearance—is Cheered by Throngs Along Line of March

Led by the Student Band, which made its first appearance, and with banners floating in the stiff breeze the Buff and Blue rooters marched to the game last Thursday 200 strong. The parade left the Medical School at one-thirty. The cheering, noisy, but orderly crowd, with police protection, went up Thirteenth street and out K to the Hilltop Field. Cheer Leaders Lynch, Underwood and Ramsey kept the yells going when the band stopped.

The extent of the selections of the band proved a surprise to many. The band was larger than was expected, there being 15 pieces. The good old Buff and Blue banner of George Washington sailed on high immediately following the band. The crowd was soon organized into squads four abreast all marching in step with Drum-Major Stayton. They made lots of good noise and specialized on the marching locomotive originated during the Sophomore snake-dance the night the Frosh were ducked. The sidewalks along the line of march were crowded with interested people who cheered the marchers and it didn't seem a long walk at all.

When the paraders struck the bridge, before reaching the enemy's territory, they were told to yell their best and prove to the G. U. followers that only the bridge shakes and not the knees of G. W. rooters, as is claimed by the Blue and Gray—and they did.

5000 SEE G. W. BATTLE G. U.; NIEDERHAUSER SCORES

The big game started at 2:30 sharp when Georgetown kicked to G. W., who advanced the ball to midfield. Georgetown rained the ball on downs, but fumbled Niederhauser recovering for his sensational dash for a touchdown. Giacomo kicked goal from the 10 yard line and the score stood 7-0 when Hillis sent the ball almost to Georgetown's goal on the kick-off. Gilroy took the ball and sprinted down the field, evading G. W. tacklers for a touchdown and goal that tied the score for the remainder of the quarter. G. W. was slowly driven back until they were but a few yards from their goal when the period ended.

Georgetown started the second quarter by forcing the ball over for another touchdown. A fumble by Georgetown contributed to a third touchdown, and a fourth soon followed when G. W. fumbled and Georgetown recovered. Score at end of half, 20-7.

Two Passes Intercepted
G. W. held better the third quarter, and Georgetown could only get one touchdown over. G. W. kept the opponents' forward passes well in check and intercepted two of them during this period and also worked one for a first down.

The last period opened with the ball in Georgetown's possession and after several assaults on the line, Georgetown shot a forward pass for a touchdown. Receiving the kick-off, G. W. opened up, but failed to gain, and kicked to Gilroy, who was downed 10 yards behind where he caught the ball. He took the ball in the next scrimmage and plowed down the field behind a perfect interference for the last touchdown. Deprived of Gilroy, who was knocked out by a hard tackle, Georgetown could make no substantial gains, and the game ended 47-7.

URGES ELECTION OF MARSHALS

Altho no steps have been taken by the class presidents as yet, President Stockton still hopes that the class leaders will elect the senior marshals. Having no Class President's Association this year makes the matter somewhat difficult, yet it only takes one person to call a meeting.

ENGINEERS HOLD SMOKER

Dean H. L. Hodgkins Speaks on "What is an Engineer?"

At the meeting of the Society at the Sigma Nu House on Monday, November 20, Dean Hodgkins gave a highly appreciated speech on "What is an Engineer?"

The Dean, after enumerating at some length the various divisions of each branch of engineering, and showing the complete dependence of the world upon the engineer, quoted a definition of engineering as follows: "Engineering is the art of directing great forces in nature for the use and convenience of mankind." "That definition," he said, "is still applicable, altho some 90 years old. The direction of the forces of nature was the problem of the first man, and the primitive folk who first fashioned the flint arrow-head, the stone hammer, and the raft of logs, were the first engineers."

He spoke of the tremendous widening of the profession in recent years and in the future, which opens, and will open, more opportunities.

The Society adopted the new constitution and then adjourned to dispose of the edibles. The next meeting will be December 15. The place has not been decided upon, but it is believed they will use one of the rooms at 2027 G street.

MENORAH SOCIETY PETITIONS TO ESTABLISH HEBREW COURSE

The Menorah Society at its last meeting decided to petition the University authorities to establish a course in the Hebrew Language and Literature, and for this purpose to create a professorship. President Stockton has already been notified of the Society's action, and signature to the petition are being secured as rapidly as possible.

GIRLS AT THE GAME

"Who are the ladies all decorated with yellow chrysanthemums?" asked a police sergeant.

"The Co-eds of George Washington University out in force," answered one of the cheer leaders.

The women of this University, altho they could not get seats together, "set off" the East stands with their floral decorations and Buff and Blue pennants.

As in previous games, the girls sang the G. W. "battle" songs between the halves and also added their voices to the lusty cheering of the whole G. W. section.

The girls, who found themselves together, had their own song and cheer leader. And not to be outdone, their cheer leader also had a Buff and Blue megaphone.

It wasn't lack of spirit that kept the girls out of the parade, but simply public opinion.

LOTS OF FUN AT "TACKY PARTY"

Student Band Furnishes Dance Music. Two Prizes Awarded

The G. W. Co-eds showed their ability to be tacky at the party given by the Sophomores to the rest of the members of the Women's University Club, Friday, November 24, at the A. & S. Building. Some of the tackiest looking people of all times were present from the dirty street walk to the flossy lady bedecked in plumes and jewels.

Miss Katherine Moran took the first prize for looking and acting the tackiest. She was overburdened with ostrich plumes and gewgaws. Miss Leonilla Lloyd was chosen second. She was a blushing bride on the arm of her mother, the happy bridegroom. Gingerbread and mugs of cider served as refreshment.

The committee in charge consisted of Miss Gertrude Walter, chairman, Miss Louise Gardner and Miss Martha McGrew.

CHI OMEGA DEFEATED

The Chi Omega team was defeated by a score of 10-8 Monday night by the Delta team of the Women's League of Washington. Chi Omega was represented by Misses Gertrude Walter and Theodosia Seibold, forwards, Misses Elizabeth Paul and Edith Swartwout, centers, and Misses Charlotte Stimpson and Emma Reh, guards.

Local Sport Writers Speak Highly of Team

The sport writers of the local papers voiced the opinion of the throngs on the Hilltop when they wrote their accounts of the G. W. U. game, for they gave the Buff and Blue eleven credit for the splendid fight against a team which outweighed them 70 pounds per man.

Each writer claimed that a different story would have been told regarding the outcome of the contest if George Washington had the number of substitutes that Georgetown had. A number of the men on the G. W. eleven were forced to play the whole game even tho fatigued because there were no substitutes to put in their places.

The Washington Herald:

It was not so much the combined efforts of the eleven men Georgetown placed upon the field that defeated the Hatchettes, as it was the individual brilliancy of John Gilroy, undoubtedly one of the greatest ground gainers the game has ever known.

The Evening Star (H. C. Byrd):

It was not to be expected that G. W. would win, and their showing was just as good as was looked for by those who had properly gauged the strength of the Hilltoppers.

The Washington Times (L. A. Dough-er):

The Buff and Blue sure did put up a fight, one savoring of those olden, golden days before the break back in 1907.

The Washington Post (S. T. Milliken): No team that has played Georgetown on the Hilltop this season fought more gamely than did George Washington.

SCHOOL FOR ARTILLERYMEN

Non-Coms. Instruct in Military Subjects Each Drill Night

In order to train its men for higher ratings, the G. W. U. Coast Artillery Company has established a series of classes that occupy the first hour of each drill night.

The subjects and the teachers of the various classes are: Emplacement and Service of the Piece; Fire Control System and Apparatus, Corporal D. L. Dutton; Powders, Projectiles, Primers and Fuses, Sergeant Browne; Cordage, Jacks, Jins and Shears, Sergeant Campfield; The Magazine Rifle, Sergeant Shields; Definitions in Regulations and Characteristics of Warships, Corporal Meese. The men are placed in each of the classes in rotation.

Capt. Burns announced at the last drill that full field equipment had already arrived for 80 men and that as soon as possible, complete equipment for the full company strength of 109 men would be gotten. The Company is receiving fine treatment from the government and will soon have its full allotment in every detail. Sgt. Wold has been busy fixing the new racks and shelves necessary for the incoming stock. He promises to fit the men out with dress cords galore for the Inaugural Parade so the Company will make a brilliant showing in its red and blue uniforms.

INTERFRATERNITY SMOKER TONIGHT AT UNIVERSITY CLUB

All Fraternity Men Are Invited—To Be Given in Honor of Football Team.

The annual interfraternity smoker will be held this evening at the University Club, and all fraternity men who are looking for a good time are going to be there. This year's smoker, which is going to be given in honor of the football team, is to be the best smoker that the Interfraternity Association has ever held, according to those having it in charge. A few speeches, and some "stunts" presented by the fraternities, mixed in with a buffet supper, will furnish the entertainment for the evening. The program will be so arranged that every one present will meet everyone else. Members of any recognized fraternity will be welcomed at the smoker.

Sophomores Object To Council Ruling

The refusal of the Council to sanction February 26 as the date on which the sophomores may hold their prom has caused some discontent among the officers and men of the sophomore classes.

H. H. Dutton, vice-president of the Sophomore Engineering Class, and one of the class presidents in charge of last year's successful Freshman prom wrote a letter to The Hatchet pointing out reasons why the two functions will not interfere. Mr. Dutton's letter, which will be turned over to the Council Chairman, is too lengthy for publication as a whole, but his main arguments will be given.

"Last year's prom," he said, "was purely a freshman affair because the tickets were sold only to freshmen, and outside of not more than a dozen couples, the attendance at the dance was entirely from the freshmen classes, showing that the tickets did not go outside the class. With the same system of management the patronage will again come from the freshmen and will therefore interfere in no way with the proposed Sophomore prom. That affair will draw its crowd from the upper classmen of the University and so will have a much larger field to work in for the same number of patrons, besides having for its managing head a more experienced committee. The number of tickets to be sold will not be more than 125 or 130 in either case, and I feel practically certain that no difficulty will be found in selling them.

"I cannot but feel that the Student Council has been grossly unjust to the sophomore classes of the University by refusing to sanction the prom on the date fixed by their Social Committee."

THETA DELTA CHI

Theta Delta Chi held a Thanksgiving dance, December 1. Several Theta Deltas from other colleges were present.

KAPPA SIGMA

The friends of Kappa Sigma were entertained at a dance at the Fraternity House last Friday evening.

OMEGA TAU SIGMA

Omega Tau Sigma announces the pledging of Harry H. Dawson, Daniel E. Higgins, Hans J. Magens, and Alden H. Russell, Vet. '19, and Dr. Neale, '17.

W. H. Wright has returned from New York where he attended the Army-Navy football game.

Departmental Notes

LAW SCHOOL

The executive committee of the Law School Alumni Association met Tuesday night and discussed in detail plans for the $100,000 Law Building campaign. Aggressive work was decided upon.

The Alumni Bulletin was issued last Wednesday. It contained articles on the building campaign by President Stockton, Dean Fraser and Wm. Bruce King, chairman of the Board of Trustees.

An agency case filled the docket of the upper court of the Walter Clark Law Club at its bi-weekly session last Wednesday. Mr. Stuart, representing the defendant, won the case. His opposing counsel was Mr. Lipton.

MEDICAL SCHOOL

Dr. Paul S. Putzke, '15, will shortly take up his duties as Chief Resident of the Central Dispensary and Emergency Hospital.

The Junior Class misses the presence of Henry W. Leetch.

The bowling team representing the Phi Chi Fraternity defeated the Alpha Kappa Kappa team two straight games on November 21. Phi Chi was represented by Messrs. Mueller, '17, Lyons, '18, Mann, '17, Davis, '18, and Stachiewicz, '17; while Messrs. Brian, '17, Minnick, '20, Basset, '19, Baffler, '20, and Connor, '18, bowled for Alpha Kappa Kappa. C. C. Davis, '18, with 110 and 118, was the high man.

The Seniors and Juniors have each taken two games in their annual bowling tournament. The Senior team consists of Messrs. Brian, Mann, Groesbeck and Muller. Messrs. Connor, Davis, Lewis and Lyons represent the Juniors.

The Freshman Class held a dance at the Chevy Chase Library on Tuesday evening, November 28. The affair, attended by 20 couples, was chaperoned by Dr. and Mrs. Carl L. Davis. The committee in charge consisted of Messrs. F. Myers, C. King and B. Baker, all of the class of '20.

ALUMNI

Samuel Herrick, LL. B. '01, LL. M. '02, M. Dip. '03, D. C. L. '04, has offered a prize of $25.00 to be known as the "Samuel Herrick Prize" to be awarded to that student of the Senior Law Class who makes the highest average in his senior year. The prize is to be awarded exclusive of the John Bell Lerner Prize for the best work done during the entire course.

DENTAL SCHOOL

Dr. Edwin B. Tilley, Tyde Cowley, Eugene Walters, attended the Army & Navy football game at New York.

Dr. Hiram Fraser, '16 and Dr. William Slack, '14, passed the U. S. Navy Dental Board and are now awaiting appointments.

The Junior Class will hold its annual smoker the latter part of December.

ENGINEERING COLLEGE

The Engineering Society has been given a room at 2027 G street, the new addition to the A. & S. Department.

PHARMACY

Mr. Burley of Pharmacy, '19, has been offered an excellent position in New York, which he will accept.

It is expected that the Freshman Class will adopt for their Class Pin the same design that the Class of '18 has. Heretofore, each class has had an individual design, with no insignia that stood definitely for the College. Such an action by the Freshmen will establish a valuable precedent. The pin consists of two panels, joined by the class numerals with the letters N. C. P. on one, and G. W. U. on the other. The pin is finished in Buff and Blue enamel.

TEACHERS COLLEGE

Miss Mary Newcombe visited her sister in Richmond, Va., during the holidays.

Miss Frances Evans went to the Army-Navy game, afterward visiting West Point.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE

Miss Anna Craton, '14, recently returned from a trip to Loudoun County, Virginia, where she visited some of her 150 charges, assigned to her care by the Board of Children's Guardians of the District.

Miss Edith Aultman and Miss Elizabeth Wilbur attended the Thanksgiving hop at West Point.

H. H. Martin is called to his home, in Illinois, on account of the death of his grandmother.

CRAIN RESIGNS FROM STAFF

Sergeant Newel B. Crain, who has been Military Editor of The Hatchet ever since the beginning of this term, was forced to resign due to the pressure of outside work. Being First Sergeant of the G. W. Coast Artillery Company, Mr. Crain finds the duties connected with that position need the greater part of his time. Corporal H. F. Dutton has been appointed to fill the vacancy.
